

A Bird's Eye View

Imagine how different the landscape must look from above. What do you think it looks like to a bird flying in the sky?

In the space below draw an aerial view of the natural landscape. Try to imagine yourself looking down from the sky at the countryside below.

What does it look like? What patterns, colours and different textures can you see?

